Dear Mr. Kirschstein:

In further response to your letter of August 29, 1975
(Item No. 1) I am forwarding herewith copies of two studies pertaining to reconnaissance:

25X1

These documents remain highly classified, and they are furnished on loan with the understanding that there will be no public disclosure of the classified information therein without a reasonable opportunity for consultation with us. If agreement on disclosure cannot be reached, the matter will be referred to the President. If the President certifies, in writing, that disclosure of the material would be detrimental to U.S. national security, the Committee will not disclose the material, but may reserve its right to submit the issue to judicial determination.

Sincerely,

Jeanne W. Davis
Staff Secretary
